

With problems on housing aggravated by accidents like fire, people who work for and with the poor have to double their effort. But with God on their side, as well as people whose hearts beat according to God's heart, the Kingdom will certainly progress despite difficult obstacles.