

Kingdom works cause burn out if the Kingdom worker does not take time to recharge and be refreshed by the fresh source of energy, God himself. Aware of this reality, the Kingdom apostles at SHEC spared March 19 as a moment of recollection where they focused on prayer and reflection. The refreshing moment happened at the St. Hannibal Training Center.