

They informed the Mayor about their present situation, presented their plans and asked him for his support. The fruitful meeting which was meant to improve the conditions of the urban poor was held at the conference are of the Pasay City hall.