

Rogate: A Heritage of Pro-poor Spirituality. The Source and inspiration of every mission, on the one hand, is God, especially in Jesus' incarnation and Kingdom proclamation. St. Hannibal responded to this inspiration in his unique ways which eventually came to be known as the Rogate. October on the other hand is especially dedicated to Mary, mother of the poor. And remarkably, St. Hannibal was also Marian. Such a wealth of heritage for a pro-poor spirituality, indeed! SHEC draws much inspiration and motivation from the foregoing heritage as it continues Jesus' Kingdom mission.
