

November 10 was a very opportune day because representatives of the John J. Carroll Institute on Church and Social Issues visited Phase 2. They came to know more about the life of SHaCC. Noemi Henon facilitated said visit. The visitors were delighted to see the dynamic growth of the Kingdom of God in communities like Phase 2.