

Jesus was a prophet-healer. Health, in other words, was one of his important mission activities. Accordingly, SHEC promotes health in its communities. One of its health projects is the weekly health seminar conducted at the St. Hannibal Training Center, Pasay City. Last November 5, 2014, the participants, Tess Espino, Nelia Cayas, Rose Bahia and seven leaders continued to enhance their knowledge in health care.