

Rogate: Living the Compassion of Christ, the King! November is the month where the liturgical year ends with the feast of Christ the King. The Kingship of Jesus is not about the display of power and majesty, but about compassion to the least (see Mt. 25: 31-46). St. Hannibal's spirituality, now known as the Rogate, has always been attuned to said Kingship, which is why in this month of Christ, the King, SHEC continues to animate the Church by vigorously serving and empowering the poor.
